Weymouth Feb. 13. 1868

Esteemed Friend.

I send to day the Weymouth Gazette. that you may see What an untruthful man can say When his unprincipled action and doings are exposed, it remindsme of the course the proslavery papers used to pursue in their notices of Meetings for the abolition of Slavery.

Also a number of the same paper containing a reply to the unmanly article,

Please remember me to your family. Very truly Yours

Elias Richards.
